"Our team from Frontline has been extremely responsive in addressing our staffing needs for the two positions they helped fill for our organization. They had a full understanding of what our needs were and what type of candidate we were looking for." – CFO

"They were prompt in communication, provided qualified candidates to choose from, just really met all expectations."
–Director of Human Resources

"Very happy with the handling of our account. The reps made sure to understand our needs and culture before sending candidates." – General Manager
